- 40% Academic Achievement
- 10% Letter of Recommendation
- 10% Community Involvement

Application Process (Applications are downloadable from the PRTC website)

Applications must include personal information:

- ACT score, income, rank in class, GPA, etc.
- This information will be used to help scorers determine need, dependability, academic standing, etc.

Application must also include a color photo of the student to be published at the discretion of PRTC.

The application must have an attached high school transcript.

Application must have two references:

- One personal reference
- One academic reference

Application deadline must be received by April 1st of the award year.

Scoring

Scoring will be done by retired teachers in our service area. If this is not possible, a scholarship committee will be created to score all applications. Scoring of applications will remain anonymous.

- Scholarships will be awarded by the CEO or designee, at each school's award ceremony.
 - Date and place of ceremony: _____
- The awards are in the amount of $2,000 each.
- Checks are made payable to the recipient's school once the PRTC business office has received registration information from the school/student, unless circumstances deem otherwise, as determined by PRTC.
